Who Will Be "Girl Of The Year"?

"The Girl of the Year" is a gratification to be bestowed upon a FFA member. This week during National FFA Week, the Appomattox Chapter will carry on many activities to honor this week, including that of voting for "Girl of the Year." "The Girl of the Year" will be chosen from the members who have had the honor of being chosen the Girl of the Month or honorable mention. These girls with the help of the club have carried on many activities this year and in the past years to forward the club.

The tense moment, when who will be announced "Girl of the Year" will take place at the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet to be held tonight (Thursday) in the Appomattox County High School Cafeteria.

Park Supt. Speaks

Mrs. Norconk Is Club President

Mrs. A. B. Norconk, of Spout Spring, was elected president of the Appomattox Woman's Club Monday evening and club members and guests heard the lively music of "Sounds of Our Times" plus a talk and film showing by National Park Superintendent F. Aler Gould.

Mrs. Rachel F. Lawson, as chairman of the nominating committee, presented a slate of officers for the next two club years, 1970-72. Mrs. Howlette B. Martin was elected first vice president; Mrs. A. A. Fratrick, second vice president; Mrs. Clifford Flippen, recording secretary; Mrs. J. B. Terry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. Lloyd Hudson, treasurer, Mrs. L. L. Stanley, historian. Installation is set for Monday, May 4.

Mrs. Charles D. Hill, president for 1968-70 conducted the meeting. She announced the Alice Kyle District Fine Arts winners from Appomattox. Mrs. W. W. Burks won a blue ribbon at the district meeting for a painting in the semi-professional class; Mrs. Merle Lawson also won a blue ribbon for her painting in the novice class. Mrs. Crawford Davidson won a red ribbon for a ceramic pitcher.

Sgt. Gould gave a brief history of the National Park Service and showed a film picturing several national parks and shrines. Mrs. Gould was also a guest of the club.

A musical program preceded Mr. Gould's address entitled "Sounds of Our Times" by the state prize winning musicians of the ACHS Beta Club.

The hostesses, Mrs. Howlette Martin, Mrs. Hunter Jamerson and Mrs. L. L. Stanley, served lime punch and assorted cookies, using an arrangement of yellow jonquils and yellow accessories to give the refreshment table a look of spring.

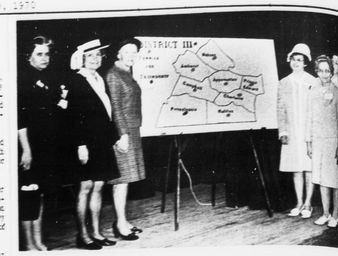
Bridal Shower

Mrs. E. W. Marshall, Jr. entertained Friday evening, April 3rd, with a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Carolyn Nash and Mr. Cecil Craig Nash at her home on Church Street.

Colors of yellow and green were carried throughout the Community Center with a centerpiece of bridal bouquet and white carnations on the refreshment table.

The marriage of Miss Nash to Mr. Cecil Lewis Thrasher will take place the evening of May 30th at the New Concord Presbyterian Church at Concord.

Among the guests were the mother of the bride, Mrs. Walter Moore, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Percy Thompson, mother of the bridegroom.



Appomattox Hosts HD Meet

Quilting Held

Mrs. Stanley Roach had a quilting session recently at her home. Although some have said that quilting is a "dying art", it certainly is not true in Appomattox where several groups still keep colorful scraps of materials, sew them into intricate designs and then put the top in a lining and filler of cotton or some of the newer man-made fibers.

Among those quilting with Mrs. Roach were Mrs. Bob Covington, Mrs. Earl Overstreet, Mrs. Mary O'Brien, Mrs. Roy Morris, Mrs. Doc Rosser and Mrs. Nancy Woody.

Mrs. Covington and Mrs. Roach served refreshments.

STONEWALL

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example, I Tim. 4:12.

On April 1, Mrs. Nellie Krause really had a birthday surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gunter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ripley came and brought supper and birthday cake for her. It is so nice to be remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Vandergrift visited Mr and Mrs Jack Caldwell Sunday afternoon.

The clean-up day was well attended by all ages Saturday at Hebron. About 35 were present. The teen age girls washed windows. The young homemakers scrubbed floors and the senior citizens prepared the dinner, so all had a place. The men worked on the yard. We really had a grand show Sunday. Each one was so pleased, we could work together as all did.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Garrett had as guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Garrett and two children of Richmond, Mr. Tim Garrett of Lynchburg, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Johnson of Lynchburg and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carson.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs Eugene Cyrus went to Buena Vista Sunday to visit Lyle's father and mother. The occasion was the birthday of Mrs. Lyle Gilbert. So see, it is not so hard to grow older.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Lee went to Lynchburg Monday for Mr. Lee to have the doctor give him a check-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher King visited her cousin, Ella Harris in Floyd County Saturday.

The children of Bob Wheeler who was in a wreck Easter Sunday, are all doing fine now. They were on the way to church and a car ran into them and their car is beyond repair. So truly God takes care of his own.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caldwell and Mrs. I. B. Wheeler visited Mrs. R. S. Harris and Mrs. Bob Harris last Monday night.

JORDAN BAPTIST

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God." Micah 6:8.

The Holiness Gospel Singers will sing at the Jordan Baptist Church Sunday night at 7:00 p. m. Sunday, April 12, 1970.

In memory of Mrs. Estelle Moseley and Deacon Willie B. Jones who passed away one year ago. In our hearts your memory lingers, sweetly, tenderly, fond and true. There is not a day, dear one's that we do not think of you.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Lollie Turner is in the hospital. A speedy recovery is wished by all.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corey Austin over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas from Washington, D. C. Mrs. Thomas is the daughter of Mrs. Austin.

Need Sitters For Visitors

Young people seeking summer work may want to inquire at Caldwell Motor Court where tourists sometimes need baby sitters for a few hours. The owners and managers, Mr. and Mrs. James Baxter say they can keep a file of names on hand for the seasonal influx of visitors.
